The building was completed in August last, and total value of the hall is about £12,000. The architect was Mr. R. Eedy and the builder, Mr. Arthur Ede.

The Department provided seating and the curtains, which were planned by a consultant from the Elizabethan Theatre Trust, were made by Turner Bros. of Kogarah.

The hall has seating for 600 and is equipped with two dressing rooms, a kitchen, modern lighting and a public address system.

The piano was donated by the P. and C. and Infants' Club, the clock, by the primary children, and the picture of the Queen by the infants.

The building committee comprised Mr. K. Hayes (President), Mr. D. McClelland (Hon. Sec.), Mr. G. Frankcom (Ass. Sec.), Mr. B. Murphy (Treas.), Mrs. S. Gregory (Contributions Sec.), Mrs. R. Saunders (Publicity), Headmaster, Mr. M. J. Walsh, and Mr. L. Cameron (Hon. Auditor).
